

ST. JAMES LUTHERAN
MESSENGER
ALL SAINTS SUNDAY
WEEK OF OCTOBER 27, 2019

In holy baptism God makes saints out of sinners. In holy communion God forgives the sins of all the saints. In the assembly today we give thanks for all the saints “who from their labors rest,” who have fought the good fight, who have gained the crown. In the same breath we petition our God for the strength to hear and to heed the admonitions of the Lord Jesus in today’s gospel. Recalling that we have been sealed by the Spirit and sustained by the Savior’s body and blood, we keep on keeping on as God gives us breath, to the praise of God’s glory.

Adult Sunday School

Weapons of the Spirit

For the next two Sundays, the Adult Class will be watching a documentary by Pierre Sauvage on the little town of Le Chambon-sur-Lignon in France where simple Protestant Christians saved 3,000 Jews from the concentration camps. Sauvage, who was born in Le Chambon-sur-Lignon, during the war asks why these brave Christians did it. He has some surprising answers. Half the video will be shown this week and half next week as we consider the Beatitudes which are always read, either from Luke or Matthew, on All Saints’ Sunday. What does it mean, “Blessed are the Peacemakers?”

It's the time of year for saying "Thanks"

Now through December 16th, 2019

During the food drive, we can truly make a difference in the community for the holiday season. With the generous efforts and contributions of our wonderful church parishioners, this year we know that together we can make an even greater impact on the community! So let's take a moment and think about how many people can be fed if we collect even more items than last year. St. James food pantry feeds around 65 families and we may have even more for the holiday season.

Food Items most needed:

Canned vegetables, soup, canned fruit, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, yams, pork-n-beans, syrup, beets, stuffing mix, canned gravy and macaroni and cheese.

Sign up or get information for the retreat in March! Yes we moved the date so talk with Mary Browder if you have any questions.

New Ebenezer Retreat & Conference

$100 Deposit due November 24th made to Mary Browder

March 6-8 Cost of retreat is $95 PP double occ. or $105 single occ. per day (including 5 meals) (checks payable to Mary Browder) Deposit is Non Refundable. <https://newebenezer.org/>

Let's start THRIVING and stop JUST surviving!!

Small group will be meeting bi-weekly starting on October 10 & 24th 2019 in the fellowship hall. We will be doing a group Bible study on Phillip Yancey's book, The Jesus I Never Knew.

We are on a mission to help others. We have, as a group, decided that we will focus on schools in our community and will be gathering clothing items and other necessities that children need at home and in school.

This group's focus is on the age range 20's-40's and encourage those who wish to join this journey as we come to know Christ and allow Him to work through us, so that we can better serve Him and our community.

Handbell Choir

We are in need of additional handbell players to cover a few spots. We are currently working on Christmas music, so there's plenty of time to learn the music.

Movie, Songs & children's songs with a 1950's feel!

Volunteers are needed to bring snacks, drinks and we will need decorators.

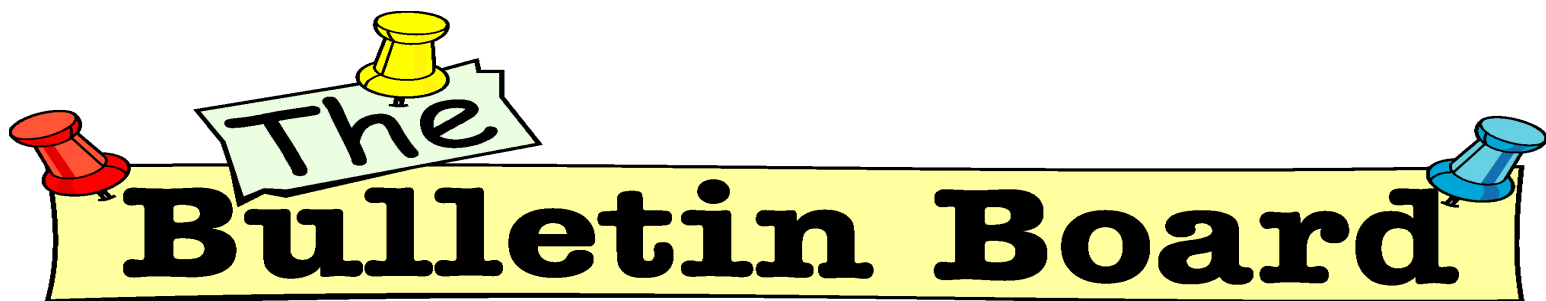

Joey Frazier will be here to host! December 7th

The St. James Lutheran Saturday Sisters is a group of women who gather together for coffee, fellowship, Bible study and some occasional "field trips". We typically meet on the first Saturday of each month

- September through May - at 9 am in the N E Age room. The meeting date/location may occasionally need to be changed so please check the bulletin for meeting updates. All women are invited to participate.

Our Bible study is taken from a variety of sources - current events, monthly devotionals or books. Our next meeting will be Saturday, September 7th and we will be starting a new series - Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World by Max Lucado. Participants will only need to have the Anxious for Nothing Study Guide for the meetings. We will be utilizing a DVD, along with the study guide, for our meetings.
